Rules and Regulations

CREATIVE ARTS DEPARTMENT REGULATIONS

The Oklahoma State Fair reserves the right to reject any exhibit offered if it is objectionable in any way, if it requires an excessive amount of space or if the capacity of the department has been reached. Any contest may be cancelled for lack of entries.

Your items will be handled with care; however, Oklahoma State Fair, Inc. is not responsible for items that are damaged while on display during the Fair. Exhibitors MAY NOT supply their own display stands. Only OSF stands will be used for display.

Any article entered for exhibition must have been created within the last year by the person in whose name it is entered. Antiques & Photography entries are an exception to this rule. These entries must be created by the person entering but are not subject to time guidelines.

EXHIBITOR AND EXHIBIT INFORMATION

Who may enter? Only Oklahoma residents. Wine entries are an exception to this rule. Unless otherwise stated, exhibitors entering must be amateurs (no more than 10% of income earned through this skill) unless otherwise stated. In some cases, an Open or Expert Division is offered. Contact the Creative Arts department with inquiries on eligibility.

How many exhibits can be entered? Exhibitors may make only one entry in each class unless otherwise stated. Exhibitors may enter as many classes as they wish.

What is the cost to enter? Creative Arts contests are free to enter unless the entry is late.

What if I am not sure in which class to enter my exhibit? Should an exhibit be entered in the wrong class, the superintendent may make the proper correction for the exhibit at check-in. Judges may also suggest changes for proper classification. NOTE: Entries in a different category MAY NOT BE SUBSTITUTED without a late fee. (Example - Entered a jelly and brought cookies.)

May I mail in my exhibit? No.

Do I need to register for live contests? Yes.

How do I get into the Fair if I am entered in a live contest? Free parking and gate entry are available to exhibitors who are entered in pre-registered live contests. Exhibitors must follow the current year arrival instructions, which are emailed following the close of registration. Only the exhibitor will receive free entry. If an exhibitor violates the entry or arrival policies, inclusive of using free parking and gate entry without participating in the contest, the opportunity to participate in future contests may be forfeited.

Exhibits must be the work of the exhibitor except in the classes for Antiques and Collections. Antiques and Collections must be the bona fide property of exhibitor. Exhibits that have been entered at a previous Oklahoma State Fair are not eligible for re-entry, except as noted. Exhibits need to have been completed after September 1, 2018, except as noted.

Each exhibit will be evaluated by qualified individuals and the decision of the judge(s) is final. All cash prizes will be paid from the awards as marked by the judges and not from ribbons that may be attached to the exhibits. Judges are instructed not to award cash prizes or ribbons unless the exhibit is deemed worthy of the placing awarded. Premium payouts for the Creative Arts Department will be mailed to exhibitor after the close of the Fair.

Within 90 days from the last day of the 2019 Oklahoma State Fair, it is the responsibility of the Payee to file, in writing, a claim for lost or incorrect awards.

If it is ascertained that an exhibitor has made any false statement in regard to any article or exhibit, or if any exhibitor attempts to harass or interfere with the judge or judges in the performance of their duties, the exhibitor shall be excluded from competition and forfeit all premiums.

Any protest must be made in writing and accompanied by a deposit of $50, which will be forfeited if protest is not sustained. Said protest must state plainly the cause of complaint or appeal and must be filed with the Manager by 5 p.m. on Thursday of the closing week of the Fair. Judges will be encouraged to view exhibits after items have been placed on display with names. If they believe that an exhibitor is not in the correct skill level, that judge will be encouraged to protest the placement.

Every effort will be made to display entries in an attractive arrangement; however, items entered for competition will be displayed only through 3rd place. Other entries will be displayed only as space is available and at the discretion of the superintendents.

INFANT CRISIS SERVICES CONTEST
Division 3573

Every year, Creative Arts participants enter beautiful hand-made artwork, crafts and sewn items to be displayed during the Fair. Now, you have an opportunity to donate your exhibits to an Oklahoma organization that helps children in need.

Infant Crisis Services provides life-sustaining formula, food and diapers to babies and toddlers in time of crisis, because no baby should go hungry.

Exhibitors may enter up to three items per class. If you would like to enter more than three items in a particular class, please call 405.948.6731.

All items entered into this division will be displayed together during the annual Oklahoma State Fair and then donated to Infant Crisis Services after the Fair ends. Award ribbons will be returned to exhibitors at the close of the Fair.

BEST OF SHOWRosette

Organization Information:

It is hard to imagine anything more stressful than sending your baby to bed hungry, yet it happens every day in central Oklahoma. Infant Crisis Services strives to make a difference in the life of a hungry baby. They provide formula, food, diapers, clothing and other essential items to babies during a very critical stage in a baby’s development. Infant Crisis Services also serves as a link to connect families with other helping agencies and programs leading to self-sufficiency. They believe each individual should be treated with compassion and respect.

Statistics:

- One in four Oklahoma babies go to bed hungry.
- 85% of brain development occurs during the first 3 years of life.
- There are close to 38,000 babies and toddlers living in poverty in Central Oklahoma.
- In 2017, Infant Crisis Services gave away: 223,748 bottles and 663,846 diapers.
- In 2017, Infant Crisis Services served more than 16,000 babies and toddlers.

THREADS OF COMPASSION SCARVES
Division 3574

This Creative Arts contest will benefit survivors of sexual violence. When these survivors seek emergency treatment, the Threads of Compassion organization provides scarves to hospitals to be given to them.

Scarves must be knitted or crocheted and they can be any color or pattern, using acrylic yarn. Scarves must be 5 - 8" wide and 65" long to ensure anyone can enjoy wearing one.

All items entered into this division will be displayed together during the annual Oklahoma State Fair then donated to Threads of Compassion, Oklahoma City to bring joy to survivors of sexual violence. Award ribbons will be returned to exhibitors at the close of the Fair.

- 01. Knitted Scarf
- 02. Crocheted Scarf

AWARDS

Ribbons will be awarded through 10th place in each class. A special ribbon will be awarded to each exhibitor.

BEST OF SHOWRosette

Organization Information:

Threads of Compassion is an opportunity to comfort recent survivors of sexual violence. The idea is simple - anyone whose life has been affected by sexual assault or abuse (either through a direct experience or through supporting a survivor) is welcome to knit or crochet a scarf that will be given to a survivor of sexual violence when the survivor enters a hospital for emergency treatment.

Starting in 2010, Threads of Compassion began working with the Oklahoma City YWCA to provide this service. The Oklahoma City chapter is following the precedence of other Threads chapters around North America.

QUILTS OF VALOR
Division 3575

Now in its second year, this contest offers an opportunity for quilters to create quilts that will be donated to the Quilts of Valor Foundation, which supports veterans who have been touched by war.

The basic requirements will be emailed to exhibitors following their registration but can be viewed at any time at <http://www.qovf.org/quilters-questions/basic-requirements>.

Each exhibitor may enter 2 items in this division. All items entered into this division will be displayed during the annual Oklahoma State Fair then donated to the Quilts of Valor Foundation. Award ribbons will be returned to exhibitors at the close of the Fair and premiums will be processed and mailed normally.

Note: If an exhibitor would like to present their quilt to a specific veteran, please request during check-in that the piece be available at reclaim. The name of the veteran must be provided when picking up the quilt to avoid duplicate presentations by the QOV organization.

AWARDS

A special ribbon will be awarded to each exhibitor.

FASTEST HOOK IN THE WEST
Division 3576

Tuesday, September 17, 2019

Check-in: 1:15 - 1:45 p.m. (NO LATE CHECK-INS)

Judging Begins: 2 p.m.

Location: Demonstration Stage in Upper Bay

Participants will be timed as they crochet a 12" newborn baby cap. The pattern will be emailed to registered exhibitors following the close of registration. All participants must bring the following materials:

- Yarn: 1 skein of soft 7 oz. yarn
- Hook: 5 mm
- Tapestry Needle

When we say "GO", exhibitors will begin to crochet. Judging will be done by speed as well as quality. Pre-registration is required and exhibitors will receive free gate admission and free parking.

Winning pieces will be displayed for the remainder of the Fair. Exhibitors will have the option to donate the cap to the Infant Crisis Center or they may be picked up at reclaim on September 23 - 24.

FIBER TO FASHION
Division 3577

Saturday, September 21, 2019

Check-in: 9:00 a.m. (NO LATE CHECK-INS)

Judging Begins: Judging begins at 4:30 p.m.

Location: Middle Bay

Are you a spinner or weaver? We invite your team (up to 5 people) to show Oklahomans the process that takes wool to wearables. Exhibitors will spin fiber then weave it into fabric and create a fashion item in a matter of hours. Looms will be warped with the same fiber used to make the item.

Pre-registration is required and exhibitors will receive free gate admission and free parking.

Note: The team captain will register for the entire team and premiums will be paid to that exhibitor.

AWARDS

- 1st Place..... Rosette & $150
- 2nd Place..... Ribbon & $75
- 3rd Place..... Ribbon & $50
