Volunteer Program Rules & Guidelines

Volunteer Membership

The Oklahoma State Fair Volunteer Program was established for the purpose of providing quality customer service to the guests and vendors of the Oklahoma State Fair (OSF). Members of the program are friendly, courteous, professional, and practice good work ethics. OSF Volunteers are the “face of the Fair” in many venues. Therefore, it is important that they have great attitudes and be trained to provide the specific auxiliary services they are assigned. To ensure that the OSF Volunteer Program maintains the integrity for which it is known and continues to provide quality customer service to the public, rules & guidelines for membership have been established. These include:

Guidelines:

1. Membership in the Oklahoma State Fair Volunteer Program is by invitation. Invitation to participate is extended by OSF on a yearly basis. Oklahoma State Fair reserves the right to accept or reject the application or participation of any applicant or returning volunteer at any time.
