Trace Adkins and Chris Janson to Perform at 2022 Oklahoma State Fair

Oklahoma City – The 2022 Oklahoma State Fair is excited to announce the return of the PRCA Xtreme Bulls & Broncs Double Trouble Tour & Concerts featuring concerts by Trace Adkins and Chris Janson on September 23 and 24, respectively.

After plenty of rodeo action on September 23, attendees will be wowed by a concert featuring country music legend Trace Adkins. Adkins has sold over 11 MILLION albums, charted over 20 singles, earned numerous awards and GRAMMY nominations, and garnered over TWO BILLION streams. He'll celebrate the silver anniversary of his album debut in 2021 with THE WAY I WANNA GO, doing exactly what he always has – mixing pure-Country reverence with standout collaborations featuring Blake Shelton, Melissa Etheridge, Snoop Dogg, Stevie Wonder on harmonica and more. Adkins' newest single "Where The Country Girls At" (featuring Luke Bryan and Pitbull) is available everywhere now.

On the following evening of September 24, Chris Janson will take to the stage. This breakout star is a platinum-selling recording artist, high-octane entertainer, multi-instrumentalist, and award-winning singer/songwriter who Bobby Bones has named among the greatest six live performers in country music. Both his inspiring hit "Drunk Girl" and his chart-topping, 3x Platinum smash "Buy Me A Boat" were named among NSAI's "Ten Songs I Wish I'd Written" lists – making Janson one in a handful of the industry's most elite artists to earn the title multiple times. Catch Janson's "crazy harmonica skill and... riveting stage style" (People) and see for yourself what makes him an "undeniable star" (The Tennessean).

"It has been a few years since we have been able to offer this event," said Oklahoma State Fair President & CEO Kirk Slaughter. "We know our Fairgoers look forward to the exciting bull and bronc riding paired with a country music concert and we are certain they will be ecstatic to see its return in 2022."
